"THE BAR SINISTER"

A social study. Something new and anonymous. One has but to read the fifteen-line preface to this new book to discover that the author, whoever he is, wields a pen that is capable of cutting a gash at every stroke—or healing the wound, as the need may be.

The preface is all we have read, but that is enough to make the necessity of laying it down, without reading further, an act of real self denial. It is a story of Mormonism, and is "a sheaf of thorns and thistles bound about with a wreath of truth." Price, $1.25.

Washington Street.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Opera at English's—Tony Pastor at the Grand.

The second performance of "The Mikado" at English's went off smoothly. The orchestra, very satisfactory, and the whole performance was a decided improvement on any previous representation of this opera.

It will be repeated finally to-night.
"The Chinese of Normandy" will be sung tomorrow night, and "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief" Friday night.

At the Grand to-night Tony Pastor's quad-week, is quite ill and has not been able to be taken home yet. His recovery is rather doubtful.

Goehr, of Richmond, fell from a cherry tree and broke his leg. On Monday evening the young man died, having been internally injured by the fall.

At a meeting of the Kokomo City Council a special election for water works was ordered to be held on Thursday, October 8.
Public sentiment is said to be about equally divided on the subject.

license in Montgomery county at the recent examination, forty failed, seven received certificates for six months, thirty-eight for twelve months, seven for twenty-four months and one for thirty-six months.

Mrs. George Weinhart, of Lafayette, was ing to force salt and pepper into her mouth.

that Weinhart had become insane, and measures were taken to send him to the asylum.

pulp by an Ohio & Mississippi train while attempting to board it near Vincennes. He WILL E. CRILE, a brakeman on the T. & C.

man caught him, crushing the pelvis bones, juries.

Blodgett on the city staff.

Several men got into a dispute at the fair grounds at Columbus over some horses that are being trained for the fair, and one Albert Pendegast, shot Benjamin Herdon twice, once in the thigh and once in the head, though neither wound is serious. The parties are now all under arrest.

A heavy robbery was committed Sunday night at the home of Joseph Ray, a wealthy old gentleman living in Warsaw. The thief entered by a window which had lost its fastening, and crawled over a table, opened a large chest and abstracted from a pocketbook in a locked inside drawer the sum of $1,600 in bills. The pocket-book was then made off through a door.

The negro Wallace, whose arrest at Madison two months ago for attempted rape, occasioned so much excitement, resulting in an attempted lynching and the death of young Kiley, was tried in the Circuit Court yesterday, and the jury returned, after several hours' deliberation, with a verdict of a fine of $10 and costs.

Thomas Winemiller, Sr., one of the oldest Winemiller, who is wealthy, is also sued for slander. At the same time his wife, Mrs.

pressure all the way from 125 to 60 pounds

The once famous Beech Grove Driving Park Association at Madison has been reorganized, and the track, formerly the best in the State, will be immediately placed in condition. Monthly meetings for races and exhibitions of stock will be held, the initial races occurring October 1 and 2. Samuel Strader is president and G. B. Giltner secretary of in first-class condition. The display of Sparks from a thrashing engine at work on the farm of Daniel Blocher, two miles northeast of Wabash, lodged in the roof of the large barn, and in a moment the structure was able to rise rapidly. Old time Danes spread that the men on the thrasher fled for their lives, and no effort was made to save the property. The barn and contents, consisting of eight hundred bushels of wheat, seventy tons of hay, four hundred bushels of oats and a large number of agricultural implements, were entirely destroyed, together with the thrashing machine, entailing a loss on Mr. Blocher of $4,000 upon which there was no insurance.

man who stumped the State last fall in the interests of the republican party, making a brilliant canvass, was arrested at Sheldon, Ill., with a horse belonging to Judge Smith, in his possession. He was brought to Logansport and placed in jail. Wine and fast women are at the bottom of his trouble. He has been a reputable attorney recently, when he has been involved in a number of questionable transactions recently, collecting money and failing to turn it over, etc., and last Wednesday a motion was made by Judge Chase to disbar him from practicing at the Cass county bar.

George Bell, who was fatally wounded at New Albany by his insane brother, had his share of trouble. He has three deaf and dumb children. A fire over a year ago his house and all its contents were destroyed by fire. Within a year he has lost one of his eyes by accident. His wife is now a terrible sufferer from cancer of the mouth, which must soon prove fatal. His calamities culminated in the bloody tragedy mentioned.
The telegram sent out from New Providence that Elias Bell's attack on his brother was the result of jealousy are wholly untrue.
The insanity of Elias led to the fatal blow he gave his brother. The insane brother has been taken into custody and will be sent to State Insane Asylum.
